

LT. GOVERNOR JOHN GARAMENDI TO SPEAK AT APAPA'S 2007 CAPITOL INTERNSHIP AWARD, SCHOLARSHIP FUNDRAISING AND INSTALLATION BANQUET

SACRAMENTO - Lieutenant Governor John Garamendi will be a featured speaker on Wednesday at the Third Annual Capitol Internship Award, Scholarship Fundraiser and Installation Banquet of the Asian Pacific Islander American Public Affairs Association (APAPA). Held in the memory of Frank Fat and supported by the State API Legislative Caucus and community leaders, the gala will honor 15 college students who will be awarded Capitol internships and scholarships.

APAPA has worked to empower Asian Pacific Islander Americans by encouraging young people to get involved in their communities and by providing opportunities to help students develop their leadership and career skills. APAPA has awarded internships and scholarships to 27 college students since the inception of its program two years ago.

WHO: Lt. Governor John Garamendi

Master of Ceremonies: Sharon Ito, News 10 Anchor

Other elected officials, including: Congressman Mike Honda, Senator Leland Yee, Assemblymembers Dave Jones and Alberto Torrico

WHEN: 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 30, 2007

WHERE: University Union, California State University, Sacramento

###

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 29, 2007

Contact: Norman D. Williams

916-445-8994